

QC Analyst

PharmaPath, a Greek pharmaceutical company with a rich history and significant legacy in the pharmaceutical field of generic medicines, is seeking a dedicated and skilled Quality Control Analyst to join our dynamic team.

Main duties and responsibilities:

- Performs daily analysis according to the relevant analytical methods and daily analysis program for finished products, stability studies, APIs and excipients.
- Performs daily instrument verifications according to the relevant procedures (balances, pH meters, Karl Fischer titer determination etc).
- Records all data and results in specified forms (paper and electronic) with accuracy and responsibility.
- Performs integration of chromatograms according to the relevant procedures, calculates and evaluates the daily analytical results.
- Conducts data review to ensure completeness and accuracy of records and notifies the QC Manager or Supervisor in case of OOS/OOT results and / or instrument, system suitability failure.
- Follows the laboratory safety rules.
- Cleans the laboratory equipment and laboratory areas according to schedule.
- Organizes and stores all chemicals substances, solvents, standards, samples and columns according to internal procedures instructions. Disposes all expired solvents, standards, analyzed samples according to the internal procedures.
- Assists in maintenance and troubleshooting of instruments.
- Assists in ordering laboratory supplies.

Requirements:

- Bachelor Degree in Chemistry, Pharmacy or any other relevant field.
- Working experience in pharmaceutical analytical techniques such as HPLC, GC, UV-Vis would be preferred.
- Problem-solving attitude & results orientation.
- Attention to detail with focus on deliverables, quality and project timelines.
- Fluent in Greek & English.

Benefits:

- Competitive remuneration package, including benefits.
- Ability to become part of one of the most dynamic and prospective teams in the Pharmaceutical industry in Greece.
- Continuous opportunities in advancing personal and career goals.

Based on your consent all received applications will be stored in our database for maximum 6 months and all data will be treated with strict confidentiality commensurate to data protection regulation.